SALON NIGHTS @ DECORATOR SHOWHOUSE

What Makes an Inspired Home?

TUESDAY, MAY 6

Designers Vicente Wolf and Juan Montoya join Karen Lehrman Bloch, author of The Inspired Home: Interiors of Deep Beauty, for a lively discussion on the subject. Panelists will sign their books in the Kips Bay Shop immediately after the talk: Juan Montoya, La Formentera and Vicente Wolf, Crossing Boundaries: A Global Vision of Design

A Century of Cuban Style

TUESDAY, MAY 13

Ramiro Fernández, author of Cuba Then and designer Hermes Mallea, author of Great Houses of Havana, discuss Cuban interior design, fashion, art and style before the revolution. A book signing with the speakers will immediately follow the discussion in the Kips Bay Shop.

He Said/She Said

TUESDAY, MAY 20

Architect/designer William T. Georgis and Cullman & Kravis founder Ellie Cullman will critique each other's Showhouse rooms with questions and comments on their design choices and challenges. Immediately following, both designers will sign books in the Kips Bay Shop: Ellie Cullman, The Detailed Interior and William T. Georgis, Make It Fabulous.

The Villard Houses: Formidable Icons of Midtown Manhattan

TUESDAY, MAY 27

Decorative arts and design expert Derek Ostergard will present an exploration of the magnificent setting for Kips Bay Decorator Showhouse 2014. The houses, built in 1882 and designed by McKim, Mead and White, have long been an imposing presence on Madison Avenue as the city dramatically transformed around them. Ostergard will discuss their history, the ever-changing neighborhood and their enduring legacy.

SALON NIGHTS LECTURES BEGIN AT 6PM
